HarperCollins Publishers, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. From the author of The Devil s Advocate comes a psychological thriller of unimaginable evil. In The Dark Andrew Neiderman again combines page-turning suspense with supernatural elements. Los Angeles psychiatrist Grant Blaine s biggest worry should be whether or not his stunning wife, Maggie, will make full partner at her law firm. But his new patient, Jules Bois, pervades his every thought. Despite Bois delusional boasts of being a master manipulator of evil and death, Grant finds him fascinating, brilliant - and inexplicably privy to his own childhood secrets and adult fantasies. Soon, his marriage begins to crumble under Bois vile influence, and with each session, Grant feels his authority as a doctor slipping from his grasp. Maggie is extremely scared of Bois hypnotic grip on her husband. As a criminal defence attorney she wants to respect the sanctity of doctor/patient privilege, but she can t ignore Bois horrifyingly detailed knowledge of recent deaths in the news. With much more than her marriage at stake, Maggie knows she must call upon all her resources to battle a man who seems to want to possess her husband mind, body and soul.
