These would give you a monthly catalogue of the improvements which are continually being made in farming husbandry. No farmer who desires to prosper in his business can afford to be without one or more of them. Our School District Libraries, from their location, can be made of great value to the farmer. The influence of this society will soon procure men qualified to make proper selections, and these libraries in a few years will contain all the valuable publications in relation to cattle, horses, sheep, and swine; their mode of management; the diseases to which they are liable; the remedies adapted to their cure; the best mode of cultivating our various crops; and their preparation for market. These books would then be within the reach of all, and it strikes me that it is a very practical way of sowing knowledge, as it were, broad-cast over the county; that a rich harvest would be the result, no one can doubt, who believes that knowledge is power. The formation of farmers clubs has been tried in many of our towns throughout the State, and are highly commended by all those who have seen their benefits. Town fairs at stated periods, say spring and fall, would prove of great advantage as regular market days, and the information obtained on such occasions would fully repay the outlay of time in attending them. The cattle raised in Cattaraugus already take a high rank in...
