Xulon Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a journey of a young man by the name of Harlan Bryant that was forced to face the biggest challenge of his life after the mother of his three children decided to walk out of their life. Through that he lost his connection with furthering his education, his career in the military, and his status as a Christian man. This forced him to totally depend on God through the power of the Holy Spirit to help him face the battles before him of being a single father raising his three young kids in the streets of California. I m Harlan Bryant born out of a little town name Edna; TX with a population about 5000 people. I spent the first twelve year in Special Education class and speech group class in the process taking Ritalin on a regular basis. Through out me years in school I encounter great spiritual leader in the church to help with my behavior on the streets and at school. My home church at that time was Shiloh Baptist Church in Edna, TX and the Pastor was Gray Roberts. The Sunday Schools teacher for the youth was Mrs. Evans and she spent time me with in the classroom and at church. God placed great people in my life to teach me important of teamwork. I discovered a talent for running and jumping so I joined the track team. The track took me off the streets and helps me earn a track scholarship with the help of Coach Whitley. After a semester at college I joined the Navy was the started of my Spiritual Growth in Christ in the big city of...
