.Enclosed is a rough draft of a work which I truly believe yields significant insight into the purpose of religion and life. I love it so much I tried to get it in your hand before Christmas. I Hope to turn your world on its head with the material enclosed, quite literally. The intention of the work is to prove through the use of religious and linguistic examples that the civilization, and the world around us was created with the purpose of surpassing a previous barrier of secret related to advanced technology. One part of breaking this wall is the disclosure of the technology itself--the hard part is preparing the planet to properly use time travel and mind altering tools for the benefit of all. It is my contention that these specific goals are the primary purpose of Judeo-Christianity, and that all our religions have been designed using these technologies for the purpose of effectively disclosing and using them. To this end, God has prepared a message that is woven not only into global religion,...
