Charmaine Galloway, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My World, Through My Eyes is a heartfelt collection of poems, reflections, and prayers that represent the trials and triumphs of the poet s past. As a teen, Charmaine found joy in writing in her journal. It was therapeutic as it allowed her to escape from the negativity of her world. She wrote all of her thoughts, feelings, and emotions on paper. Having a positive outlet for this emotion and creativity encouraged her to see that there IS positive light even within the hardships she has endured. Charmaine believes that her purpose in life is to share her testimony of Faith. In this book, she shares one of the most valuable and essential lessons she has learned on her journey. Learning to Let Go and Let God intervene in her life and heal her from her sinful past has been the most life changing, validating, and peace yielding decision she has made for herself. Come and witness Charmaine s poetic reflection of life which has molded her into the strong, devoted mother and Christian she is today.
