Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tiffany finally believes she's gotten her life back on track and after a surprising promotion that lands her in her dream job, she also finds love in an unexpected place. While helping her friends and family find their own versions of happiness, Tiffany encounters several surprises along the way. And then when a blast from the past appears, Tiffany must decide if she's ready to continue moving forward or will the comfortable familiarity of the past beckon her back into a relationship that was best left buried? It doesn't take Tiffany long to realize that letting go of all she knew might lead to the life she was meant to have and to the man she was meant to share it with. But will she have the courage to make the right decision or will it all go horribly wrong?.
