Xulon Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Assume that we question random pedestrians in the USA, about the Ten Commandments. Their responses will include the movie with Charlton Heston, the Bible, Israel, recent government prohibitions and Moses. Many give Moses credit for writing the Ten Commandments. The Fact Is That God Himself, With His Own Finger, Etched The Ten Commandments Into Stone. Using only the scriptures, the author has produced this controversial book, which is sure to ruffle some theological feathers. He insists that the corporate church has imperiled Christians with a form of religion, lacking depth and truth. He exposes crucial areas where, man-invented traditions are replacing the foundational truths of the Holy Bible. This volume provides a spiritual review, not only of the Ten Commandments, but also of the reader's own spirituality. No Christian can perform a sincere quest for truth in the chapters of this book without coming to a clear understanding of his relationship with God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. George J Neumann was born in Germany to strict Baptist parents. He dedicated his life to Christ at age twelve. When he was seventeen, his family immigrated to the US. While acknowledging that godly pastors and theologians contributed much to his spiritual growth, he insists that ongoing sanctification is mostly the result of personal Bible studies and an intimate prayer life.
